Assessment Brief

Assessment Information
Assessment Task (with genre/type)	The assessment is comprised of two elements of coursework: Part A (35%) Presentation Work placement students are required to design and present a professional poster that promotes their placement organisation. The poster supports the student's live presentation at Innovation Fest, a public-facing event celebrating innovation and employability. The presentation allows students, to communicate the value and activities of their placement organisation. Reflect on their own contribution, learning, and development. Consider opportunities for continued collaboration between the organisation and the University. Part B – (65%) Logbook Student on work placement must maintain a word-processed logbook, with entries made on a weekly basis and at agreed milestone reviews. The logbook should provide a continuous and authentic record of professional development, reflection account of tasks, achievements, challenges, and learning. Students must prepare and place at the front of their logbook a critical summary, providing a reflective overview of their placement experience and key learning outcomes.

	For this assessment, AI is: PERMITTED (neither prohibited or required) If you use generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) in the process of completing this assessment you MUST set out clearly the following: • WHY you used generative AI • WHAT it was used for • WHICH AI was used; and • If any generated content has been used directly in this submission, if so where. Note that this declaration does NOT contribute towards the word count for the assessment. You will also have to confirm in your declaration that the work remains yours and you have intellectual ownership of it. You may be invited for an informal conversation to discuss the approach to your assessment. A failure to disclose the use of AI, or the use of a misleading description of its use will be considered academic misconduct. As a result, keeping good records of your interactions is strongly advised. Do not 'copy and paste' directly from any sources, including AI tools (unless using a direct quotation from e.g. a journal article/book "" that is cited appropriately).

Use of Artificial Intelligence

Whilst AI tools can be helpful in assisting learning, when it comes to assessment, the Academic Misconduct Procedure is clear that this should be a student's own original work and not the work of other people or AI tools.

The Use of AI Tools – Student Guidelines follows the same guidelines your lecturers use. If you are unsure of whether AI is appropriate within your work, please read the guidelines or ask your lecturer. For advice and guidance around academic writing, please visit the Centre for Academic Success.

Academic Integrity Guidance

Academic Integrity means completing and submitting your own original work while properly acknowledging sources. Following academic conventions, such as referencing and citation, helps avoid plagiarism. The Centre for Academic Success offers resources on Moodle, workshops and 1-2-1 support to improve skills like paraphrasing and referencing.

Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct is conduct that has or may have the effect of providing you with an unfair advantage by relying on dishonest means to gain advantage and which therefore compromises your academic integrity.

The Academic Misconduct Procedure sets out the process we will follow, and the penalties we may apply, in cases where we believe you may have compromised your academic integrity by committing academic misconduct.

The maximum word count for this module assessment is shown on Page 1. A +10% margin of tolerance is applied, beyond which nothing further will be marked. Marks cannot be awarded for any learning outcomes addressed outside the word count.

The word count refers to everything in the main body of the text (including headings, tables, citations, quotes, lists etc.). Everything before (i.e. abstract, acknowledgements, contents, executive summaries etc.) and after (i.e. references, bibliographies, appendices etc) is not included in the word count limit.
